

Worship Program

OUR MISSION:

The Mission of Ebenezer Baptist Church, West is to preach and teach the Gospel of Jesus Christ in such a way that transforms non-believers into believers, believers into disciples, disciples into fruitful mature leaders, who will in turn go back into the world to reach others for Jesus Christ.

For information about The West, visit our website:

Stewardship Tip:

Jesus Christ established the church to carry out the mission of evangelizing in the world. When sinners profess His name and submit to the teachings of His Word, we become Christians. By being a Christian, we are called by His name, and He adopts us into His family. The church is the earthly meeting place where the family of our Lord meets together to worship Him and to encourage one another in love. Stewardship is a part of this mission. Let's encourage one another to be faithful loving stewards.

Charlayne Hunter-Gault witnessed part of the civil rights movement when she became one of the first two African-American students to enroll in the University of Georgia in 1961. She graduated in 1963.

In 1967, she joined the investigative news team at WRC-TV, Washington, D.C., and also anchored the local evening news. In 1968, Charlayne joined The New York Times as a metropolitan reporter specializing in coverage of the urban African-American community. She joined The MacNeil/Lehrer Report in 1978 as a correspondent, and became The NewsHour's national correspondent in 1983.

Charlayne also worked in Johannesburg, South Africa, as National Public Radio's chief correspondent in Africa from 1997 to 1999 and was CNN's Johannesburg bureau chief and correspondent until 2005. During her association with The NewsHour, she won two Emmys and a Peabody for excellence in broadcast journalism for her work on Apartheid's People, a NewsHour series on South Africa.

Charlayne is also the author of In My Place (1992), a memoir about her experiences at the University of Georgia. She is currently working on a first-person memoir detailing the struggle of African Americans in the 1960s.
